

Theatre

Annie

Saturday 19 May, 2:30 pm and 7:30 pm
Watford Palace Theatre, £11-£16, 01923 225 671
Watford Operatic Society presents Annie, the musical. Set against the background of the depression in 1930's New York, this is the heart-warming story of orphan Annie's quest to find her family.

Moths Ate My Doctor Who Scarf/ Back to the Futon

Friday 25 May to Saturday 26 May 2007, 8:00 pm
Maltings Arts Theatre, £10/£8,
01727 844 222
Celebrate your inner geek with a double bill of comedy shows themed around cult classics Doctor Who and Back to the Future.

Bertie and David

Saturday 26 May, 8:00 pm
Maltings Arts Theatre, £9/£8, 01727 844 222
At a celestial cocktail party, the last two British kinds, George VI and the Duke of Windsor humorously reflect on family history and sensational royal gossip.

The Brave Little Tailor - Just Puppets

Saturday 19 May, 3:00 pm
Maltings Arts Theatre, £4.50 ages 4+, 01727 844 222
This is a puppet show for the little ones. It is the classic story of the tailor who killed seven in one blow.

An Evening with Gervase Phinn

Monday 21 May, 8:00 pm
Alban Arena, £14.50, 01727 844 488
Dubbed "The James Herriot of schools" this best selling author, radio and TV personality is not to be missed!

Cannon & Ball - Live

Thursday 24 May, 7:30 pm
Alban Arena, £14.50, 01727 844 488
Tommy Cannon and Bobby Ball, one of Britain's funniest and most successful double acts, are coming to the Alban Arena for a laugh-a-minute show.

Blithe Spirit

Thursday 24 May, Friday 25 May, Saturday 26 May, 7:45 pm
Watford Palace Theatre, £11-£21, 01923 225 671
This sparkling comedy about how past relationships can come back to haunt you was written in 1941 when death was no joking matter and has become a comedy classic.

Concerts

Lightnin' Willy and the Poor Boys

Saturday 19 May, 8:30 pm
Maltings Arts Theatre, £12.50,
01727 844 222
Classy swinging Blues and R&B with a hint of Texas Rockability.

Lunchtime Concert: Annett Busse

Wednesday 23 May, 1:00 pm
Maltings Arts Theatre, £3,
01727 844 222
Join this talented pianist for some captivating solos from her wide repertoire.

That's Amore

Friday, 25 May, 7:30 pm
Alban Arena, £18.50/£16.50,
01727 844 488
Mark Adams, with his fabulous band, perfectly captures the style, the looks, the charm, the voice and the magnetic appeal of Dean Martin.

Kid Creole and The Coconuts

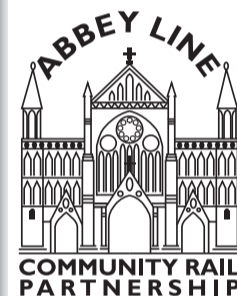

Saturday, 26 May, Doors 7:00 pm, Show 7:30 pm
Alban Arena, £24.50/£22.50,
01727 844 488
For over 20 years, Kid Creole and The Coconuts have been entertaining the world as one of the ultimate, exciting, extravaganza party bands.

It is

Community Rail Week

May 19th - 26th 2007

During this week we want to celebrate the Community that uses the Abbey Line. Find out what is happening close to your station.

For more information about the Abbey Line CRP, please contact Alissa Ede, Community Rail Partnership Officer on 07770 993162

email:

crp@herts.cc.gov.uk

www.abbeyline.org.uk

Walks

ST. ALBANS CITY WALKS

£3 per adult, £1.50 ages 5-15. Tickets can be bought in advance or from the guide.
01727 864 511 - Meet outside the front of the Old Town Hall.

Historic St Albans

Sunday 20 May, 11:00 am - 12:30 pm
Covering 1200 years in about 90 minutes, this excellent walk gives an overview of the most important people, buildings and events in St. Albans from the Monastic to the modern.

Wars of the Roses

Sunday 20 May, 3:00 - 4:30 pm
This walk concentrates on the first battle fought in St. Albans between the houses of Lancaster and York, which took place in and around the market place. Come and join the battle-no armour needed!

'Fit for Life' sponsored walk

Sunday 20 May, 10:00 am - 12:00 noon
Venue: Cassiobury Park,
01923 245 243
Come help raise funds for your local branch of Arthritis Care.
A wonderful walk through Cassiobury Park, along the Grand Union Canal and Whippendell Woods. There is a choice of a 1 mile wheelchair friendly walk or a longer 5 mile walk through the woods.

Discovering Bricket Wood Common

Wednesday 23 May, 6:30 - 8:30 pm
01727 848168
A 3 mile/4.8 km walk to explore the heathland, ponds and trees on this rare example of lowland wet heath.
Meet at Bricket Wood Station.