

GAMBLING ACT 2005

Notice Regulations

The notice given to a responsible authority must be given within a period of 7 days beginning on the date on which the application is made.

Regulation 12 also requires a notice of application to be published in the case of any of the following types of application:

application for a premises licence (other than a fast track application), application to vary a premises licence, and an application for a provisional statement.

A notice is to be published:

— in a local newspaper or, if there is none, a local newsletter, circular or similar document, circulating within the licensing authority's area; and
— by displaying a notice on (or in certain cases as near as possible to) the premises or proposed premises to which the application relates.

In the first case, the notice is to be published on at least one occasion during the period of 10 working days starting with the day after the day on which the application is made to the licensing authority. In the second case, the notice is to be displayed for a period of no less than 28 consecutive days starting on the day on which the application is made to the licensing authority.

Plan to accompany applications for a premises licence

(1) An application for a premises licence under section 159 shall be accompanied by a scale plan of the premises to which the application relates which complies with the following provisions of this regulation.

(2) The plan must show:-

- (a) the extent of the boundary or perimeter of the premises;
- (b) where the premises include, or consist of, one or more buildings, the location of any external or internal walls of each such building;
- (c) where the premises form part of a building, the location of any external or internal walls of the building which are included in the premises;
- (d) where the premises are a vessel or a part of a vessel, the location of any part of the sides of the vessel, and of any internal walls of the vessel, which are included in the premises;
- (e) the location of each point of entry to and exit from the premises, including in each case a description of the place from which entry is made or to which the exit leads; and
- (f) any other matter required in accordance with the following provisions of this regulation.

Where the application is for a betting premises licence, other than in respect of a track, the plan must show the location and extent of any part of the premises which will be used to provide facilities for gambling in reliance on the licence.
