Privacy Notice for animal licensing applications

This privacy notice explains how St Albans City & District Council (the Data Controller) will use any personal information we collect about you when you use our services.

What information do we collect about you?

The information that the Council will collect varies depending on how you use the Council's Services. We are using the information provided in this case because we have a legal obligation [Art. 6(1)(c) of the UK General Data Protection Regulation ("GDPR")]. This means we collect your personal information from you so that we can carry out a function we are required by law to carry out. In this case we are collecting personal information so that we can consider your application for licensable activities under the The Animal Welfare (Licensing of Activities Involving Animals) (England) Regulations 2018.

How will we use the information about you?

We use the information to process your application for an Animal Welfare licence and, if granted, to regulate your Animal Welfare licence. We may share the information with other departments at the Council to enable us to deal with your application, or take action to regulate the licence, if granted, but for no other purposes.

We will not share the personal information we hold with any external organisations except for consultees listed in The Animal Welfare (Licensing of Activities Involving Animals)(England) Regulations 2018. We may share the details of the application, but not your personal contact details, with the properties neighbouring your proposed site.

We may be required to share your personal information with the Police, Internal Audit or similar agency, or another Council for the purposes of preventing and detecting fraud.

We will ensure that all personal information is kept securely.

How long will we keep this information?

We will destroy this personal information in accordance with our Disposal Schedules. To determine how long we should keep information, we consider what the legislation states and what is good practice. This means we will securely destroy the information once we no longer need it. If you would like to know the specific period of time that relates to your personal information please contact GDPR@stalbans.gov.uk

Individuals' Rights

You have a right to request a copy of the personal information that we hold about you. If you would like a copy of some or all of your information, please contact foi@stalbans.gov.uk and ask for a subject access request.

If you consider we hold inaccurate personal information about you, you can contact us to ask for this information to be corrected. We will consider your request and respond within one calendar month. Please contact GDPR@stalbans.gov.uk.

You can find out more about your rights on our website:

Cookies

Cookies are text files placed on your computer to collect standard internet log information and visitor behaviour information. This information is used to make your use of the internet better. For further information on how we use these and how you can control it, please visit the website.

Changes to our Data Protection Policy

We have a Data Protection Policy in place and this can be found here.
