

Privacy Notice for Licensing Act 2003 Applications

This privacy notice explains how St Albans City & District Council (the Data Controller) will use any personal information we collect about you when you use our services.

What information do we collect about you?

The information that the Council will collect varies depending on how you use the Council's Services. We are using the information provided in this case because we have a legal obligation [Art. 6(1)(c) of the UK General Data Protection Regulation ("GDPR")]. This means we collect your personal information from you so that we can carry out a function we are required by law to carry out. In this case we are collecting personal information so that we can consider your application for a premises licence; a club premises certificate; a personal licence, a temporary event notice or a variation of premises licence or club certificate .

How will we use the information about you?

We use the information to process your application or variation or other application for a licence or certificate or your personal licence application or a temporary event notice, and, if granted, to regulate your licence, certificate or notice. We may share the information with other departments at the Council to enable us to deal with your application but for no other purposes. Our Estates Team do receive copies of application forms to alert them to any potential changes to the use of Council land. District Councillors receive this information, to enable them to carry out ward councillors functions.

We will not share the personal information we hold with any external organisations except for responsible authorities. We will share the details of the application or notice but not your personal details with any objectors.

We may be required to share your personal information with the Police, Internal Audit or similar agency, or another Council for the purposes of preventing and detecting fraud.

We will ensure that all personal information is kept securely.

How long will we keep this information?

We will destroy this personal information in accordance with our Disposal Schedules. To determine how long we should keep information, we consider what the legislation states and what is good practice. This means we will securely destroy the information once we no longer need it. If you would like to know the specific period of time that relates to your personal information please contact GDPR@stalbans.gov.uk

Individuals' Rights

You have a right to request a copy of the personal information that we hold about you. If you would like a copy of some or all of your information, please contact foi@stalbans.gov.uk and ask for a subject access request.

If you consider we hold inaccurate personal information about you, you can contact us to ask for this information to be corrected. We will consider your request and respond within one month. Please contact GDPR@stalbans.gov.uk.
