Elite Card Criteria

1. To qualify for an Elite Card, applicants must be participating at the following level:

Juniors (Aged 11 – 18yrs) County, Regional or National squad in their chosen sport
Intermediates (Aged 19 – 21yrs) Regional or National squad in their chosen sport
Adults (21yrs+) A member of a National squad in their chosen sport

2. All applicants must be residents of the district.
3. Applications must include one reference from the applicant's coach. This may be in one of the following forms:
(Please note, in some cases a second reference may be requested.)

A reference letter from your coach on headed paper
Or
The Optional Reference Form completed and stamped by your coach

4. Elite cards are given as a yearly fixed term membership with a charge of £10 per annum. This must be paid before an application will be processed.
5. The application form must be posted to: Elite Card, St Albans Sport and Health Team, District Council Offices, St Peters Street, St Albans, AL1 3JE.

Elite Card Terms and Conditions

The card allows free access to gym, swim and group exercise classes only across the district at council owned facilities, subject to availability. Court and pitch hire is not included.

Inductions may be required at Leisure Centres before Elite Card holders can use the facilities.

Access to individual sports and group exercises will be limited to availability, may occur a charge and in some instances may not be offered within the facilities.

Access to the individual sports may also be limited where the equipment used may jeopardize the individual's safety and that of others.

The card cannot be used to gain free or discounted access to sports specific courses or make court/block bookings under the individuals name, free of charge.

The card must be used by the name holder only.

The card does not permit access to external personnel or your coach. All sites have level 3 personal trainers who are happy to support development and training.

The card holder must inform us if they cease to participate at the required levels.

The Elite Card will expire at all sites after 1 year. It is up to the applicant to re-apply for the membership annually. Please note a reference will be required with each application. Please note Elite Card applications are processed at the end of each month. Please ensure you get your renewed application to us in time to avoid a lapse in your membership.
