What to do if you are leaving hospital or struggling with mental illness

If you are facing homelessness upon leaving hospital or struggling with mental illness there are a number of options available to you.

Leaving Hospital

If you are facing homelessness at the end of a stay in hospital, please get in touch with patient discharge team. They may put you in contact with the Housing Options team at your local council through a Duty To Refer.

On discharge from hospital, your hospital discharge team can put you in contact with a Community Navigator, who can help you access the local services you require to support your needs.

Contact Details:

Lister Hospital (Stevenage)
