

PAYMENT OF COUNCILLORS ALLOWANCES AND EXPENSES FOR THE FINANCIAL YEAR APRIL 2010 - MARCH 2011

The District Council's 58 Councillors are entitled to claim allowances for their work as elected representatives.

Basic Allowance covers the time devoted by Councillors to their work outside Council meetings such as meetings with constituents, site visits, correspondence, telephone calls and political group meetings.

Special Responsibility Allowances were paid to Councillors who held the following posts designated by the Council: Cabinet Chair; Portfolio Holders; Chairs and Vice-Chairs of Overview and Scrutiny Committees, Area Planning Committees, Licensing and Regulatory, Audit and NHS Health Committees and the Chair and Members of the Licensing and Regulatory Committee attending daytime hearings.

The amounts payable to each Councillor during the financial year from 1 April 2010 until 31 March 2011 are set out below. Also included this year are details of payments made to Councillors attending daytime Licensing Sub Committee hearings. Payments of travel/subsistence allowances and childcare and dependant carer's allowances are also now included, together with payments made to co-opted members of the Standards Committee.
