

Privacy Notice for Freedom of Information (FOI)/Environmental Information (EIR) Processes

This privacy notice explains how St Albans City & District Council (the Data Controller) will use any personal information we collect about you when you use our services.

What information do we collect about you?

The information that the Council will collect varies depending on how you use the Council's Services. We are using the information provided in this case because we have a legal obligation (Art. 6(1)(c)). This means we collect your personal information from you so that we can carry out a function we are required by law to carry out i.e. responding to FOI and EIR requests. You will usually provide the following information: your contact information and details of your request [Art. 6(1)(a)]. We are collecting this limited personal information so we can respond to your request.

How will we use the information about you?

If you contact us for information, we will use your personal information to allow us to send you the response. We may share your personal information with other departments in order to provide you with the response.

We will not share the personal information we hold with any external organisations. We may be required to share your personal information with the Police, Internal Audit, or similar agency, or another Council for the purposes of preventing and detecting fraud.

We will ensure that all personal information is kept securely.

How long will you keep this information?

We will destroy this personal information 7 years after we have closed the case.

Individuals' Rights

You have a right to request a copy of the personal information that we hold about you. If you would like a copy of some or all of your information, please contact foi@stalbans.gov.uk and ask for a subject access request.

If you consider we hold inaccurate personal information about you, you can contact us to ask for this information to be corrected. We will consider your request and respond within one month. Please contact GDPR@stalbans.gov.uk.

You can find out more about your rights on our website: <http://www.stalbans.gov.uk/council-and-democracy/departmentsPoliciesPlans/data-protection/>

Changes to our Data Protection Policy

We have a Data Protection Policy in place and this can be found here:

http://www.stalbans.gov.uk/Images/SADC%20Data%20Protection%20Policy%20March%202017_tcm15-57902.pdf

We review this policy annually. An updated General Data Protection Regulation version will appear here before 25th May 2018.

Data Protection Officer

Our Data Protection Officer for the purposes of Articles 37 to 39 of the General Data Protection Regulation is Charles Turner, Solicitor to the Council. He can be contacted by emailing GDPR@stalbans.gov.uk or calling 01727 819209 for our Complaints Team.

How to contact us

Please contact us if you have any questions about our Data Protection Policy, or concerns about how we handle your information: by emailing foi@stalbans.gov.uk or write to us at: FOI Team, St Albans City & District Council, St Peter's Street, St Albans, AL1 3JE.

Complaints

You have a right to complain to the Information Commissioner if you are unhappy with how we process your personal information. You can do so through their website: <https://ico.org.uk/concerns/> or by emailing: casework@ico.org.uk or calling their helpline on 0303 123 1113.
