

Privacy Notice

This privacy notice explains how St Albans City & District Council (the Data Controller) will use any personal information we collect about you when you use our services.

What information do we collect about you?

The information that the Council will collect varies depending on how you use the Council's Services. We are using the information provided in this case because we have a legal obligation (Art. 6(1)(c)). This means we collect your personal information from you so that we can carry out a function we are required by law to carry out. In this case we are collecting personal information to enable your comments and questions to be passed to the relevant Scrutiny Committee.

If you're providing us with special category personal information (such as details about your health) we will be processing this under Art. 9(2).

How will we use the information about you?

We will share the questions or comments you have provided with the relevant Scrutiny Committee and any external attendees to the Committee who have been asked to respond to the questions raised.

Your questions or comments will be shared anonymously unless you have requested otherwise. You will be notified by a Democratic Services officer once responses to questions of the Committee have been published.

We will only share the information to enable us to deal with this matter or if you have specifically requested for your information to be shared.

We may be required to share your personal information with the Police, or similar agency, or another Council for the purposes of preventing and detecting fraud.

We will ensure that all personal information is kept securely.

How long will we keep this information?

We will destroy this personal information in accordance with our Disposal Schedules. To determine how long we should keep information, we consider what the legislation states and what is good practice. This means we will securely destroy the information once we no longer need it. If you would like to know the specific period of time that relates to your personal information please contact GDPR@stalbans.gov.uk

Individuals' Rights

You have a right to request a copy of the personal information that we hold about you. If you would like a copy of some or all of your information, please contact foi@stalbans.gov.uk and ask for a subject access request.

If you consider we hold inaccurate personal information about you, you can contact us to ask for this information to be corrected. We will consider your request and respond within one month. Please contact GDPR@stalbans.gov.uk.

You can find out more about your rights on our website: <http://www.stalbans.gov.uk/council-and-democracy/departmentsPoliciesPlans/data-protection/>

Cookies

Cookies are text files placed on your computer to collect standard internet log information and visitor behaviour information. This information is used to make your use of the internet better. For further information on how we use these and how you can control it, please visit
